“ It was so rare to meet, but such bright memories from these meetings. We remember Irene's visits to her father's homeland in the village of Kyblary, we remember the extremely warm greeting cards with Christmas holidays to all relatives here. A person dies when his memory dies. We remember! Sincere condolences to the entire family!

“ Aunt Irene was such an intelligent, lovely lady- an inspiration to all of us! I loved hearing about how she entered nursing school to serve during World War II, she told us many stories from her early years when my mother and I visited her in North Carolina. Rest in peace sweet Aunt Irene- we love you.

*Irene,
Arrived here late. Wish I looked you up sooner. You were always lovely, polite, graceful including personable.
I had electrolysis appointments with you at your office in Westchester Square, Bronx,
New York.
Prayers, love and light Dear Irene.*
