

Jackie Newman Biggerstaff

April 25, 1942 - September 18, 2021

Jackie Newman Biggerstaff, 79, of Mooresville, NC, passed away on Saturday, September 18, 2021. He was born on April 25, 1942, in Clover, SC, to Summey Newman and Mary Deal Biggerstaff.

After high school, Jack found a job at Standard Crankshaft, Inc. in Charlotte. From there he moved over to Crankshaft Service, Inc. then went to work for Carolinas Auto Machine, Inc. in 1974, he left Carolinas Auto Machine to start his own crankshaft, head and block repair business and called it Carolina Crankshaft Company, Inc. In 2009, tiring of the increasing traffic in Charlotte especially on Graham Street and thinking that it might be time to downsize, Jack moved his business to Mooresville where he worked until August.

He is survived by his wife, Jane and daughters, Cindy Truesdale (Buell), Lynn Anderson (Warren), Jackie Brotherton (Roger) and sons, Mitch Phillips (Amy), Ducky Phillips, and Andy Phillips (Christy). Grandchildren include Summey Biggerstaff, Derek Phillips (Ashley), Tyler Phillips, Brianna Phillips, Colten Phillips and Brayden Phillips and great-granddaughter, Alora Phillips. Jack's sisters are Shelby Cooper, Mary Ann Bennett, Bonnie Thompson, Cathy Wallace and brother, Steve Hull (Kay).

A celebration of Jack's life will be at Shearer Presbyterian Church Fellowship Hall on Saturday, October 2, 2021, from 3:00 to 5:30 pm. Instead of flowers, memorials can be made to Roof Above (formerly Urban Ministry Center) P.O. Box 31335, Charlotte, NC 28231 or to Shearer Presbyterian Church, 684 Presbyterian Road, Mooresville, NC.

Cavin-Cook Funeral Home, Mooresville, is serving the family of Mr. Biggerstaff. Condolences may be made to the family at www.cavin-cook.com.

“ My sincere condolences to Jack's family.
I only knew Jack a short time working with him through MBI Coatings and doing crankshafts for his company. I can say that everyone here really liked Jack and he will be missed.
Jack was a very kind man and always a joy to speak to on the phone.
