

Jack Lee Ledford

May 10, 1941 - November 12, 2024

Jack Lee Ledford, 83, of Cornelius, North Carolina, passed away peacefully on Tuesday, November 12, 2024 at his home.

He was born on May 10, 1941 in Harlan, Kentucky, to the late George and Georgia Snapp Ledford. Mr. Ledford was a Vietnam veteran serving proudly in the US Army. He was retired from the Commonwealth of Kentucky where he worked with the DOT and was rewarded with the Kentucky Colonel Commission Award. His passion was horses and anything cowboy. He worked for many years in the horse industry in Kentucky and Florida. He was a very talented leathersmith who could make anything from holsters and horse saddles to wallets and belts. He also had extensive knowledge with gunsmithing.

Mr. Ledford is survived by his children, Kristen Grondin and husband, Richard, Eric Ledford and wife, Julie; grandchildren, Emilee, Riley, Jessica, Nathan, Joshua, Kaitlyn; and great grandchildren, Hunter, Gannon, Peyton, Grayson, and Knox.

A small family service will be held at a later date.

In lieu of flowers, memorials may be made to the Wounded Warriors Project, P.O. Box 758516, Topeka, Kansas 66675-8516 <https://www.woundedwarriorpr>

“ My condolences to the family of Jack Ledford. I came to know Jack several years ago when he came to my law office to make his Will. He became not just a client but a dear friend as well. We kept in touch by telephone even after he left Kentucky. I will always remember his kindness and sense of humor and how it helped lift my spirits during my cancer treatments a couple years ago. Rest in peace, Jack.
