“ Jackie, you were a great friend and an inspiration in the true sense of the word, in your fierce love for your family and friends, the way you sincerely cared about others, your never give up attitude and your great sense of humor. I never heard you complain even one time, no matter what was thrown your way. I am grateful for our time together and all the fun times we had at Rock Steady. I am a better person for having known you. Rest in sweet peace my friend.

“ I had the privilege of being Jackie’s boxing coach. She was a feisty woman and everyone knew it. Such an amazing woman who always brought her A - game to boxing class. She will be missed, but I take peace in knowing she is God’s arms, no longer plagued with Parkinson’s, and with a perfect body with strong healthy legs. Love you Miss Jackie. Thank you for the beautiful memories and your friendship.
