“ I learned recently about my niece Jackie's death. We had not been in touch for a few years.

Jackie was always a ball of energy- wiggle-worm is how her grandfather described her when she was a child. Energy and optimism propelled her. And she was incredibly hard-working. From a young age, she worked as a babysitter for a family that considered her one of their own. She had a talent for decorating that she inherited from her mother. I remember visiting the first house she bought after becoming an ER nurse. It's simple elegance was stunning.

Her love and devotion to her dogs and all dogs was well-known. In fact, she rescued an abused dog that ended up becoming my dear dog Sam.

I am sorry and sad she left us so soon. I am grateful she had so many loving friends by her side for the time was here.

“ Jackie was a close friend to my sister Julie and I at different times throughout life but she was like a sister. She and I shared our love of dogs and we had great times riding horses together in our youth. Rest in peace girl. Heaven is full of giggles now. 🌸💕🌸

“ Jackie loved her dear Stepdad, Patrick Gorman with all her heart. He gave her fatherly love. Knowing that she had been cared about by Pat and supported in her dream of becoming a nurse meant the world to her. Jackie loved the lake, dogs, nursing, golf, friends and her beloved stepdad.
