“ So sorry God decided to take Jamie home, I know he's having a great time now, but it sure is hard for us who are left down here, I'm praying for you Kylee, and all your family and loved ones, I know it hurts, but we just have to remember how he touched our lives, and keep those memories in our minds, and try to think how happy he is now.

“ My husband and I had the honor of getting to know Jamie at Clayton Homes., he helped make our dream of a new home come true! Jamie was a wonderful person, he always spoke highly of his wife and family. But most importantly he always spoke highly of the Lord. It was obvious he was a great Christian man! I pray you find peace in knowing that you will reunite with him one day. We send our prayers to his wife and family in this very sad time.Jerry and Jamie Price
