“ Sorry for the loss of your loved one. I have found this scripture to be most comforting. I hope this will bring comfort to you as it has to me. Isaiah 41:10 “Do not be afraid, for I am with you. Do not be anxious, for I am your God. I will fortify you, yes, I will help you, I will really hold on to you with my right hand of righteousness.”

“ Just learned of James death. I am so sorry for your loss and the entire family. When I saw you he was improving. God knows us before we are yet conceived and he knows what plans he has for us. This time his plan wasn't yours but God is in control. May each day bring more peace . Johnnie Johnston

“ I send my deepest condolences to the family and friends of Mr. Lindsey. While no words may ease your pain, rest assured that the pain we feel won't go on forever. John 5:28, 29 talks about a hope we have of seeing our loved ones again when they're resurrected back to life. Once resurrected, they can enjoy the promise found at Revelation 21:4 which speaks of a world in which death, tears, mourning, and pain have no place, for “the former things have passed away”. Please visit our website at jw.org to learn about this beautiful hope and more.

“ James was a wonderful friend to our entire family. We will miss seeing him around when we visit mom & dad. We'll especially miss seeing him doing what he loved - spending time at home with family & friends, cooking on the grill and relaxing by the lake. James had such a gentle, kind heart and a funny sense of humor. He shared everything and would always pitch in to lend a helping hand when needed. We will remember fondly all the wonderful memories of James, laughing & enjoying life and his wonderful kids, grandkids, family & friends. Rest in peace dear friend.

“ A good man in the eyes of those who knew him here on earth and a good angel who will keep the flock under a watchful eye. May we hold his memory in our hearts and share his stories because as long as his name is spoken he will always be remembered.
