“ I give my sincere condolences to the families and friends. Jim was greatly loved. The best description of Jehovah God is that he is love. It talks of this at 2 Corinthians 13:11 where it says, "Finally, brothers, continue to rejoice, to be readjusted, to be comforted, to think in agreement, to live peaceably, and the God of love and of peace will be with you." This love is the reason why we can be confident that Jehovah will remember those in the memorial tombs in the near future and we will be reunited with our loved ones. Please take comfort in that knowledge.

“ I send my deepest condolences to the family and friends of Mr. Lefler. Although I did not know him personally, I'd like to offer some consolation from God's Word, the Bible. John 5:28, 29 speaks of our loved ones being resurrected, and eventually living in the conditions described at Revelation 21:4, which reads: “And he will wipe out every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain by anymore. The former things have passed away.” May the promise of this beautiful resurrection give you all hope for the future and peace of mind now!

“ Dear Mary Alice, I was saddened by the news of Jim's death. We never met. I regret that because he had credentials that showed he was a man of God. Too, he was a family man and was loved by all his children, grandchildren and great grandchildren. There are many good people in the world and he was one of them. Mary Alice, you may recall that we attended MHS in Mooresville, NC. You at one time received our class of '51 newsletter. Pat Rhodes Culberson mentioned seeing you recently. I will think of you and your family at this time and pray for comfort and peace. Bill Brown

“ What a wonderful family. Jim left such a legacy here on earth he devoted to his family and his Lord. As a young girl when I was spending the night we would all ways have devotions and that left such a impression on me. Many of times I still reflect on how much this family has inpacked me and so many others living the life they were raised to do living like Christ....prayers and love coming your way. “ Jim was always a kind and quiet man with deep convictions. These past years were hard for him and you, Mary Alyce. You have been a faithful wife and nurse to your husband. He is healed now. Praying for each of you. Love, Rebecca
