“ I went to Colerain H.S. with Jim and was in boot camp at MCRD San Diego with Jim also. While I haven't been in touch since those days I have many fond memories of Jim. If you have the book from boot camp, you'll see that he and I were in the same platoon. Just recently I had wondered where Jim lived because we are having a 50 year reunion at school. Jim was a kind soul who will be missed. Jack McGowan, Sun City, Arizona

“ would just like to say what an honor it has been to have known Jim for the past several years & it will be a special honor to officiate his home going services!! have learned many lessons in life just simply by knowing him & having the opportunity to talk with him on many occasions.He never once mentioned to me the medals of honor he received during his time of military service while he bravely fought for this great country & our freedom in the jungles of Vietnam.He did however mention,with tears a flowing, the disrespectful welcome home he received after returning home.As we mourn his passing & celebrate his life, we will give him the respect he is so deserving of !!! May his soul forever rest in peace !!!
