“ My sincere condolences to Jim's family. This was truly sad news for me. Jim was my neighbor this past year. We shared the same passion for the outdoors. I loved how he lit up when we shared stories. He was a great neighbor and friend. We called each other regularly to keep in touch. He was truly a angel sent to me during personal problems. He was a man with a huge generous heart. I'm very fortunate he came into my life.

“ Tracy and extended family, my sincere condolences. My favorite memory of Jim happened in your garage. I told him my dream was to own a corvette. He said, wait a second. Jim went back in the house. When he emerged he threw me the key to the Vette and said take it for a spin. I will never forget that ride!!! Love and prayers as you grieve for the loss of Jim - Jan and Bruce Sheridan St. Louis

“ In 2008, I opened a sales site for The Shrimp Connection in a parking lot at the Lions Club at the corner of Brawley School and Williamson road. One of my first customers was Jim Robbins, who was larger than life, crazier than me, who became a big promoter of my little business, which soon moved up to Josh's Farmer's Market, and began an unbelievable growth of selling our fresh seafood. Jim, Tracy and the boys always were there as well as his mother-in-law, Nancy, and her parents from Raleigh. I knew them well and appreciated their business for many years. Recently, Jim and I renewed our friendship and got together for a few meals. I will miss this guy, my loyal friend, and wish I had spent more time with him. Peace be with his family.
