

James Woodrow Brown

November 29, 1937 - December 4, 2017

James "Jim" Woodrow Brown, 80, of Mooresville, passed away on Monday, December 4, 2017 at Gordon Hospice House in Statesville. He was born on November 29, 1937 in Sanford, FL, to the late Nell Knight Brown. Jim was a retired chemist and also a pilot, having his own plane. He loved his family, grandchildren, and fishing with his grandson. A man of many hobbies and interests; Jim was an avid animal lover, enjoyed hand crafts, such as leather and wood working, playing hammer dulcimers and singing in the church choir. He was a member of Berea Baptist Church, Mooresville, where he was a Sunday School teacher and loved serving in the church. He is survived by his wife, Mary Robinson Brown; children, Jim Brown (Deb) of Mooresville, Lynn Baynes (Mark) of Statesville; grandchildren, Brittney Sparks (Matthew), Heather Baynes, Hunter Baynes, Cody Brown; and great granddaughter, Emery Sparks. Due to inclement weather, the memorial service for Mr. Brown will be held at 2:00 PM on Monday, December 11 at Berea Baptist Church with Rev. Wayne Wike and Rev. Ralph Sparrow officiating. The family will receive friends following the service at the church. In lieu of flowers, memorials may be made to Berea Baptist Church, 1015 River Hwy, Mooresville, NC 28117 or Gordon Hospice House, 2341 Simonton Rd, Statesville, NC 28625. Cavin-Cook Funeral Home & Crematory, Mooresville, is serving the Brown family. Condolences may be made to the family at www.cavin-cook.com.

“ Uncle Jim, I'm sorry to hear about your father passing. A terrible event. One I wish I could be closer to help you through. Losing a family member isn't easy. And at this time of year, it's down right tragic and cruel. In the coming weeks I'll keep you and Debbie in my thoughts. Praying for your strength to get through this.
