

Jamie Scott Buchbinder

July 13, 1983 - February 28, 2021

On February 28, 2021, Jamie S. Buchbinder passed away suddenly at the age of 37. Jamie was born in Brooklyn, NY and raised in Dix Hills, NY. Jamie attended Florida Atlantic University and spent his career in automotive management. He recently moved to Mooresville, NC with his family. His four children meant everything to him and were the center of his world.

Jamie is survived by Emma (8), Ethan (7), Evan (7) and Eli (5); his siblings Melissa (Chris), Joseph (Lori) and Michael (Carolyna); as well as six nieces and nephews. Jamie is predeceased by his parents, Valerie and Gary Buchbinder and his grandparents, Janet and Frank Ianniello and Shirley and Walter Buchbinder.

Jamie did things "his way" and had a larger than life personality. He was kind-hearted and generous to the people he loved. Everyone has a 'Jamie Buchbinder' story and he left a lasting impression on all who knew him.

Jamie's tragic death will have a tremendous impact on his family and friends. He will be greatly missed, but never forgotten.

There will be a Mass in Jamie's honor at 1:00 PM on Saturday, March 13 at Christ The King Church in Commack, NY. The service will also be live streamed for those who cannot attend. A private graveside service for immediate family will follow on March 14.

In lieu of flowers or gifts, the family has set up a fund to benefit Jamie's children. <https://www.gofundme.com/f/in-loving-memory-of-jamie-buchbinder>
Cavin-Cook Funeral Home, Mooresville, is serving the Buchbinder family.

Condolences may be made to the family at www.cavin-cook.com.

“ He was such a good hearted guy, too often misunderstood, but always trying to spread love and care to those around him. I wish we had the chance to make more memories, but I'm thankful for the brief time I got to spend with him. Rest In Peace sweet Jamie, you will be missed more than you could have known brother.
