“ So sorry to hear Betty passed away. I knew her years ago from St. Therese Catholic Church. We played games after the 5:30 Sat. night mass. It was a pot luck dinner. We also joined her and Bob on bus trips through the church. I learned Betty and I shared the same birthday Oct. 21. Recently I would see her at the bowling alley and stopped to say hi. We also shared the same car, a white Buick Verano. She was a real sweet lady. My condolences to her family.

“ *Edelen Family,
The Conklins send their condolences on the loss of Betty. She was such a kind woman. It was Betty who got us involved in the Peru Ministry and led us to "adopt" our special friend, Elvis. She always had a smile and a hug for us when she saw us at Mass. We will miss seeing her!*
