

Janice Funk Balmat

February 10, 1939 - August 17, 2016

Janice "Jan" Funk Titterington Balmat, 77, of Mooresville, passed away on Wednesday, August 17, 2016 after a long battle with Chronic Lymphatic Leukemia. She was born on February 10, 1939 in Cleveland, Ohio, to the late Carl and Stella Bankiewicz Funk. Mrs. Balmat received her Masters of Art Therapy and was an active member of St. Therese Catholic Church in Mooresville. In addition to her parents, she was preceded in death by her first husband, James Titterington; daughter, Anne Titterington Figush; and son-in-law, Howard Figush. Jan is survived by her husband of 46 years, Paul Balmat; children, James Titterington and wife, Lisa of Chardon, OH, Kevin Balmat and wife, Caryn of Huntersville, Sarah Balmat Black and husband, John of Austin, TX; sister, Valerie Liderbach of Cleveland, OH; and grandchildren, Nicole, Christopher, Brendan, Meghan, Macy, and Esben. The delights of Jan's life were her grandchildren and she loved spending time with them. A Memorial Mass will be held at 11:00 AM on Tuesday, August 23 at St. Therese Catholic Church, Mooresville. The family will receive friends following the service in the family life center. In lieu of flowers, memorials may be made to the National Right to Life, 512 10th Street NW, Washington, DC 20004 or St. Therese Catholic Church, 217 Brawley School Rd, Mooresville, NC 28117. Cavin-Cook Funeral Home, Mooresville, is serving the Balmat family. Condolences may be made to the family at www.cavin-cook.com.

“ I have fond memories of my Aunt Janice. Even though she raised a house full of children, she still made room for my sister & me to come visit & stay over night. I remember her big pan of pizza & slices piled high on a plate for Paul when he returned from work. She would take us all on errands driving us around in her long station wagon ! These are just some of the fun childhood memories that I will cherish forever.
