“ Jann and I lost touch when the family moved from Mount Olympus to Bell Canyon. We became good friends, our junior year in high school. We commuted together every day from the Hollywood Hills to Woodland Hills in her beloved silver Honda Civic. She was taking bookkeeping, shorthand, and typing classes at Piervce College. It was there that we discovered the joys of In-N-Out burgers. If I recall correctly, her monthly car payment was all of $58! We also spent a lot of time together because we were dating brothers. Jann was sweet, positive, thoughtful, kind, funny, and full of energy. I wish I had been there to support her before she passed. □
