

Jared John Holland

October 5, 1986 - July 18, 2022

Jared John Holland, 35 of Mooresville, North Carolina, passed away at this home on July 18, 2022. He was born on October 5, 1986 in Minnesota.

Jared loved his family. Some of his hobbies were fishing even though he couldn't touch the fish without a glove, being on the lake, sprint car racing and tinkering with engines. He was also an avid collector of fishing poles and lures. Jared LOVED to eat and his favorite question to his wife was always "What's for dinner?" He was an expert at turning trash into treasure and he could find the best deals on Facebook Marketplace and do any needed repairs, especially restoring jet skis. He had a remedy for anything mechanical. His dream was to one day live on a BIG yacht with his wife Holly. Jared was a great friend and would be there to help anyone that needed it. He was deeply loved by all who knew him and will be greatly missed. There will never be another Da.

Jared was preceded in death by his grandparents, Marv and Ella Jean Holland and Albert Benning.

He is survived by his wife, Holly Holland; children, Tyler Holland, McKenzie, Sam and Mylee Martin and Sadie Lou Hinson; brothers, Brent Holland (Shannon) and Curt Holland (Becky); sister, Kaylene Goerndt (Darrick); Grandmother Darlene Benning; Parents Mr. and Mrs. Dave Holland; and several nieces and nephews.

A memorial service will be held on Sunday, July 24, 2022, at 3pm at Cavin-Cook Funeral Home and Crematory with Eddie Karriker officiating.

“ Holly, you and Jared were there for Misty and Neal during the hardest time in their life, the loss of Matthew. You were at the hospital with us, took them home, there the next morning, and was their rock through it all. You touched their life's and mine at the amazing friends you all were, even after. You and Jared became part of our family. Thank you for all you and he done for my family. It breaks my heart too know he won't be there too be silly with Neal and picking at Misty any more. I'm so sorry for what you are going through. I wish there was some way too easy you pain. I'm here anytime you need me. I pray God helps you and your family through this terrible loss. You and Jared are amazing people. Love you.
