“ Papaw, wow. The memories at Foursquare...I can't even name them all. Hurricane Hugo is a big one for me, and you losing that HUGE tree you had in the top of the little hill. Riding bikes with you all the way from your house to hillside, then back down the train tracks. You were a WONDERFUL Papaw, and WOW, how much you loved my little girls, especially my little Peyton! You, and your sweet, soft, singing voice will be missed greatly! We love you! Until we meet again! ❤️

“ Sending my sincere condolences in the passing of JC, he has been a true friend for 50+ years. My late husband Ronnie chose him to be best man at our wedding June 30, 1972. I admired his dedication to God, the church, his family and many others. I will continue to uphold your families in prayer. ”
