“ Amy, I wanted to know that I'm thinking of you during this time of loss for you and your dad. I remember your mom as a lovely person and know that you must miss her immensely. Rob has treasured your friendship through the years since you were in school together at Northwest Guilford and then were neighbors in Charlotte. I keep reminding him how fortunate he is to have maintained the support of this valuable group of friends. May the gift of your mother's love, and that of your friends, comfort your heart.

“ Class of 1966 will miss Jeanette. She would make the drive each year for the girl's luncheon. We are a close class even after all the 54 soon to be 55 years. When a classmate has their graduation to Heaven, we are happy to know they have made the transition from earthly to heavenly. At the same time, we will greatly miss her and saddened. To the family, hold tight to the memories and God's peace surround you in the months ahead. Sandra Brown Penley

“ Fondly remembering Jeanette at this time when we were in school at Western Carolina sharing good times with our classmates, fraternity brothers, her sorority sisters and other good friends and fellow students. Years later, many of us began getting together annually in those familiar mountains and, became re-acquainted as our families grew up. Carol and I will continue to cherish our friendship with this lady and our times together during so many years.
