“ I am so very sorry about Jeff's passing. I have known him & his beautiful family for 14 & 1/2 years. He was so full of life & love for people around him. Jeff adored & loved his family so much. My life was better for having known him, one of the best men I knew. The inspiration, kindness & spirituality that he showed everyone around him was incredible. “ Hi Jeff,
So many happy memories from such a long time ago that feel like yesterday. Like water skiing and fishing on those hot days in Lake Lotela. And all the crazy days at A.P.H.S. You and Stephanie were such a cool couple to hang out with. And then just a little over a year ago you helped me pick out a drum kit for my Son, who at the time was serving his Country in Afghanistan. The look on my Son's face when plays the drums makes me remember your kindness towards others. Thank you Brother! God bless you and your Family with everything they need to get them through this time.

Your Friend,
Ron Minard

“ I worked with Jeff for years, and took drumming lessons from him. Learned sooo much about drumming from him, and now I play fairly regularly for our church worship band. Can only imagine how happy he is now, home with Jesus, no more pain, and probably playing drums in a big band up there for God. Play on, Jeff! Will meet you there one day.
