“ I send my deepest condolences to the family and friends of Mr. Ivester. While no words may ease your pain, rest assured that the pain we feel won't go on forever. John 5:28, 29 talks about a hope we have of seeing our loved ones again when they're resurrected back to life. Once resurrected, they can enjoy the promise found at Revelation 21:4 which speaks of a world in which death, tears, mourning, and pain have no place, for "the former things have passed away". Please visit our website at jw.org to learn about this beautiful hope and more.

“ I enjoyed working with Jeff for 8 years as his customer service rep at Dawson. Jeff was an extremely hard worker and one of the very best salesman I've ever known. It was my pleasure to watch his world change when he married and then again when Grayson was born. I remember Jeff sending me pictures of the "Clemson" nursery and pictures as Grayson grew. He was very proud of his family and I know he was a great dad! There are certain phrases he used that still come to mind and make me smile. My thoughts, prayers, and condolences to all of Jeff's family and loved ones.

“ Jeff was not only my employee.. He was a great Friend! A “SOLID” man, that was an advocate of “ALL THINGS RIGHT” We had worked together over the past 10 years in one capacity or another, but had known each other much longer. Jeff and I had not only laughed together... From time to time, We even had a meeting of WILLS (yes, we fought)I only mention the above because: To REALLY know Jeff, you knew and accepted the following... A. Jeff was a FAMILY Man!B. Jeff LOVED Staci and Grayson with all of his being! Vacation cruises to tropical destinations (diving adventures), Coaching Grayson’s baseball team, and endless discussions of how PROUD he was of Grayson! C. Jeff was one of the MOST PASSIONATE people I’ve ever known – In ALL respects! Jeff was a “DUAL EDGED SWORD”D. Jeff was NOT an “Ex-Marine” He was a “Forever” SOLDIER... (I don’t know for sure... But, I’d bet that he CELEBRATED the 239th anniversary of the Marine Corp., on Monday of this week)E. Jeff had served in the Marine Corps as a “Sniper”, and was religiously FOCUSED on his “day to day” activities. (I do know that Jeff HONORED Veteran’s Day on Tuesday of this week) F. Jeff had ALIGNED his belief system with the following: GOD, FAMILY, FRIENDS, INTEGRITY, LOYALTY, WORK ETHIC; to name a few.G. Jeff was STRONG! If he sensed that you were not committed to a decision he felt unjust... He would “sell” you on WHY he was RIGHT.H. Jeff enjoyed his “JOB” and ALL the people he worked with – Co-Workers, Customers. He knew that he was making a difference, and would always give 100% ; BUT expected the same in return.I. Jeff’s KNOWLEDGE of “ALL THINGS RIGHT” fueled his passionate nature. In turn, he had the RESPECT of and was TRUSTED completely by customer’s which immediately became FRIEND’s.J. Everyone that Truly Knew Jeffrey Grant Ivester... Could not help to both RESPECT and LOVE the Man!On a lighter side... Jeff had been told many times that Orange clothing was not his best color! Nonetheless, He continued to wear ORANGE... It had everything to do with the CLEMSON Tigers.Jeff will forever be MISSED – If I were able to convey one thought to him... Just one more time... I’d say “Thanks, It was an honor to know you!”

“ I served in the Navy with Jeff and was stationed with him in Japan and I can't tell you how sorry I was to learn of his passing. While it has been years since I last had contact with him I have thought of him often and with great fondness. Jeff had a way of living so carefree back in those days that everyone who knew him was envious, including myself. We had a group of guys that were very tight and Jeff was most certainly the ring leader. Jeff is the only person on this earth that I know who has successfully "moonied" a 3 star General and I am so grateful I bore witness!! He was always the life of the show no matter if we were working or playing. My heart is heavy today. The photo I am attaching is Jeff's room mate Dave Barnes, Jeff and myself. This scene typifies a normal day for us back then and I am so very sorry he had to leave this earth so soon. Thank you to his family for sharing him with the rest of us. Respectfully, Kelly Harper
