“ Carol, so sorry to hear of your loss. I took Jeff's class a few times, his passion for what he did, was amazing. He was always so willing to answer questions, in class and out. If you took his class, he knew you, he invested in his students. No doubt how he felt about you, you two made an awesome team.

“ Carol, I was saddened to hear about Jeff's passing. I just heard an hour ago and I can't believe it. I have a long history with Jeff, spanning 26 years, partly in a business relationship, and part through Jeff's love of teaching electrical code. Jeff helped me to get my unlimited 24 years ago and always enjoyed sharing stories with him. I hadn't seen Jeff for a few years, but in July I took his 2 day class in Asheville, and I'm thankful I got to see him. He was having a hard time with pain that weekend, and you could see it was difficult for him, but he kept at it like a trooper. I know it's difficult, and will continue to be difficult and I wish I had something that would make you feel better, but I don't. Fortunately, you have a lot of great memories together, and that will keep his spirit alive and maybe give you some comfort. Prayers to you and your family.

“ I just recently attended Jeff's workshop back in August of this year. I took my NC unlimited exam on Sept 20th and passed my first try. This would not have been possible was it not for Jeff's knowledge and guidance on how to navigate the codebook. I am deeply sorry to the family for this loss. Jeff will be missed dearly by many. He impacted so many lives with his wisdom. My condolences go out to everyone.

“ Carol, wanted to let you know that you are in my thoughts and prayers. I first met Jeff through one of his seminars, (I had tried for my NC Licensee twice on my own and failed) with Jeff's "Code made Simple" approach, the code book became much clearer to me and as of June 1999 I have been a NC Licensed Electrician and have kept up my hours through his continuing education. I was so shocked to hear the news from a friend yesterday. Jeff was such a good man and he will be missed by all who had the privilege to meet him. May the love and peace of Jesus give you comfort through these coming days.
