I never have the words to say at a time like this. Please know we are praying for you Sue, and for the kids, grandkids, other family members, and friends. “ I send my deepest condolences to the family and friends of Mr. Rowan. While no words may ease your pain, rest assured that the pain we feel won't go on forever. John 5:28, 29 talks about a hope we have of seeing our loved ones again when they're resurrected back to life. Once resurrected, they can enjoy the promise found at Revelation 21:4 which speaks of a world in which death, tears, mourning, and pain have no place, for “the former things have passed away”. Please visit our website at jw.org to learn about this beautiful hope and more.

“ Our thoughts and prayers go out to the entire Rowan family. Growing up with Jeff Jr. and being around Jeff was always an eventful experience. Jeff did not do much sitting still. Whether it was making record time going up to the Rowan Cottages in his Turbo Thunderbird years ago or trying to keep up with Jeff going to a Nascar race, it was clear early on for me that one could find themselves a lap down to Jeff very easy. I often attended many Rowan family functions wondering what I was getting myself into but it always ended in bent over laughter and great memories. The first thing Jeff always said to me was how is your family doing and I will always remember that. I am so sorry for your loss. Dan Giannotti
