Jeff was a part of my family since he was a teen. Gina words will never be enough to express the sorry for you and the boys. My heart is broken he was so young and the memories I have of all the hugs I received from him are wonderful. May God be with you and give you peace.

“ Gina and family, my thoughts and prayers are with you all now and in the days ahead. Jeff was one of a kind and I think anyone who met him just had to love him and his sense of humor. He was always there to cheer the boys on in whatever sport they were doing if he wasn't coaching them. He will definitely be missed but I know you will see him again someday. I love you guys.
