“ Mourning the loss of my cousin, a beautiful, talented, and genuine person. I will always regret not seeing more of her, but she has always and will always hold a very special place in my heart. She was what all of us long to and wish we could be. I grieve for her beautiful family, whose loss is immeasurable. I rejoice, however, for the heavens that she now calls home and the peace and perfection of her new life. She has earned her place! Love to you, Bob, Brittany, Austin, Olivia, Victoria, Aunt Millie, Lori, and Julie.

“ I have known Jennifer since elementary school and remember spending nights at her house and the beautiful music she use to play on the piano. The last time I seen her was at the 20 year class reunion and she was aa pretty and nice as the childhood days. I love reading the stories and you will be missed, until we meet again God Bless you and the family.
