

Jennifer Alice Kingsley

May 27, 1962 - February 3, 2020

Jennifer Alice Brown Kingsley, age 57, passed away peacefully in her home in Mooresville, NC, surrounded by loving family and friends on Monday, February 3, 2020. Jenn was born May 27, 1962, to Lynwood and Mary Brown.

In 1993, she married the love of her life, Glenn R. Kingsley. She is survived by her heartbroken husband and children, Samara Di Scala (Joseph), Ethan “Boomer” Kingsley, and Spencer Kingsley. Grandchildren Sloane and Victoria Di Scala, brother David Brown and sisters Rhonda Brophy, Terry Sullivan (Thomas) and Coreen Brown. Also, countless grieving friends in Mooresville and on Facebook.

Jenn was an extraordinarily multi-talented woman. There was never a challenge she couldn't meet, never a problem she couldn't solve, never a tear she couldn't dry, never a person in need she wouldn't support.

Jenn faced the challenge of her illness with astounding bravery and spirit. Such was her selflessness; it was usually Jenn providing the comfort for heart-broken family and friends.

A service for Jennifer will be held at Cavin-Cook Funeral Home, 494 E. Plaza Drive, Mooresville, NC 28115 on Thursday, February 6, 2020, at 7:00 PM. All are invited. The family will receive friends from 5 – 7 PM, prior to the service at the funeral home. The burial will take place in West Chester County, NY, at the family burial site. In lieu of flowers, please consider making a contribution to the Brody Thompson Memorial Fund, PO Box 531, Mooresville, NC 28115.

“ Jennifer was the most wonderful, kind, gentle yet spunky friend. We met in 2010 at the dentist office where I worked at the time. She marched in and said, “ I don’t like dentists!” I said “great, I’m not the dentist!” and we’ve been friends and companions ever since. What started as a chance meeting grew into a special bond over the years. I’ve loved every opportunity I’ve ever experienced with Jennifer. I will miss her. She was always full of life. She fought the most courageous battle with cancer. Rest In Peace, sweet friend. I’ll see you in Heaven. 😊 Blessings to her loving husband and their family in the time of grief.

“ I met Jennifer nearly 11 years ago. She was one of my first clients at Ulta Beauty in Mooresville. I will never forget how nervous she was trying a new hair stylist. She cried when I was done with her cut and style that day and said, “I found my Kelly!”. Her former stylist in another state was also “Kelly”. We became great friends. I always looked forward to her appointments. We had so much in common, including our love for our Labrador Fur Babies. She always arrived with a box of DD Munchkins that we shared life stories over. I will miss her so much!!! She is someone who I will always hold close to my heart! ❤️ She loved her husband and three children so much! My thoughts and prayer for their strength and comfort as they lay to rest an amazing person. Rest In Peace Dear Friend!
