“ I want to say to the family I am very sorry about Jeremy. He was a childhood friend. Me and my brother use to play football after school together i have known Jeremy for many years. He was always the sweetest boy. I know what it is like to loose a brother. I actually lost my brother the one that played football with us and u know and it is hard now I am the only one left out of us kids. I am sorry step and Dennis, and his mother Brenda. I know the pain that u all are going thru. And if u all need anything I will do my best to help u.

Rest in peace my friend until we meet again. Jeremy

“ So sorry for your loss too the family and friends . Jeremy was a guy that if he liked you he would try to do for you what ever he could . But if he didn't he would let you know in one way or another. He would make me laugh with the silly things he would say and do. RIP my friend a lot of hearts are broken cause you left us to soon
