“ Dan was such a wonderful man. He was so full of knowledge and always teaching us something new. It's just not the same without him. We will truly miss him here at Acosta. I am so happy that I had the honor of knowing such a phenomenal person like him. We are keeping the family in our thoughts and prayers.

“ Dan Frye will sorely be missed by all who knew him. He was larger than life, willing to help anyone, a good friend, and devoted family man. Dan had an uncanny ability to have a joke for nearly every situation; his laughter was contagious. Bobbie and I will never forget the fun we had cruising the Chesapeake Bay in August 2015 with Dan and Stevie on the hottest weekend ever. Despite the bugs and heat Dan kept us laughing, never complaining as he took every new experience in stride. Our hearts are heavy with sadness now that he has left our circle of friends but we will remember his light sprite and kindness to others forever.

“ Dear Stevie , Christina and the entire wonderful Frye family, Dan was my idea of a true southern gentleman, a wonderful neighbor who became a brother to me, Dan and Stevie were my lifeline when my husband died. We enjoyed so many great times on the lake and with them I never felt alone. He leaves such a gap in our great group. How can he be gone? He seemed larger than life! Dancing at the shag festival , moonlight cruises on the lake...no worries Captain Dan is in control, Walking Christina down the aisle, bonfires, remember dan you helped me "burn the 80s and 90s" Dan lived life on his terms and was true to himself. I will miss him so and will try to be to Stevie what they were to me, the best friends.

“ I met Dan when my sister and I moved into an apartment across the street from Dan and Steve in Charlotte, North Carolina. Our friendship began when Dan and Steve figured out that when they saw my mother's station wagon pull up at our apartment, it was filled with food. They always came over and of course were invited to dinner. Because I played tennis, I became one of the guys and was always included in their marathon day long tennis matches with plenty of ice cold beer. I was included at their place to watch sport games on tv. It took a long time for me to figure out that they would start picking up beer cans and put in a trash bag and then sit back down because I would join in and finish - cleaning their kitchen to boot. (LOL) Those were the days. We three Amigos took scuba diving lessons together and took our first dives together. Dan and I took a road trip in my 914 Porsche to Casey Key, Florida where my Aunt and Uncle lived. The highlight would have been catching fish for our dinner but it turned out my new car was a lemon and we got stranded on the side of the road coming home. We had to ride the bus the rest of the way home. After Dan and Steve moved to a different apartment and several years later, my Steve and I reconnected, fell in love, and got married. Who else, but Dan, was Steve's best man in our wedding. Steve and I also have fond memories of Dan at his lake house. He was so proud of building his large restroom (fit for a King). There were only two girls who captured Dan's heart: Stevie, his partner for life, and Christina, his daughter. Steve, our two young daughters, and myself attended Stevie and Dan's wedding. I remember how happy Dan was that day and what a beautiful bride Stevie was. Although, we were not able to attend Christina's wedding, the picture of Christina walking down the aisle with Dan leaves no doubt he was a very proud Papa. I know Dan loved being a father. He proudly talked about Christina and traveling to soccer games or adding a horse barn and horse to his property. Recently, Steve and I got to spend time with Dan and Stevie. Dan dusted off not only his boat, but also the paddle boards. Once again Dan had us in the water enjoying ourselves just like we did many years ago as youngsters. I loved hearing his laughter and seeing his grin when he told me that I looked more comfortable *standing on that paddle board than Steve. As I read other posts, my story and memories are much like many others: Dan helped each of us to live life to its fullest. He loved us and he was loved back by many, many friends and family.*Rite Kane “ I've known Dan almost my whole life. In fact, the entire Frye family has been part of almost my whole life. We all were born and raised in Gastonia. Dan, being the oldest of the Frye children, and four years my senior, was someone I always looked up to. Wade, Terry, David and I all went to school together. I would go to Dan's office, down the hall from mine at the Acosta office, for business as well as personal advice. He was always calm, never getting agitated, and would 'calm ME down' when I needed calming. I will miss Dan, his wisdom, our talks, and his "boyish smile". Dan was a great person, gone way to soon from this world. God Speed Dan Frye.

“ Hello Frye Family I am very glad that Dan was able to attend the recent "Former Employees of Atlas Marketing" Reunion that was held March 2015. As always, Dan made sure that he greeted & spoke to the 150 + people that attended our Reunion. I will never forget Dan's huge smile, his laugh and the 'fact' that every time Dan introduced himself at an Atlas Marketing new Food Company Interview he always told the new Manufacture Representatives in the room that the reason that he had such a very strong voice was because his first career was "Working in a Saw Mill where he had to talk very LOUD". Dan will be greatly missed by his family, his friends and especially the Atlas Marketing Alumni due to Dan's numerous years being a Key Salesman on the Atlas Marketing Wholesale Team.

“ So heartbroken to hear of Dan's passing. Going down memory lane, I worked for Dan at Atlas when he was VP of Dairy Dept. for think 10 yrs. I will never forget my interview with Dan, like none other! His smile was contagious, many laughs. Although, he was suspicious of his 40th birthday, so Dan & his accomplice BW, thought a perfect day to move his boat & take a day off. After a call from our friend Mr. Olin, these 2 yachtmen were on their way to Dan's exhausting birthday surprise!!!! You see, he wasnt much on being the center of attention but, wherever Dan was he brought the laughter. Great memories, Heaven has a genuine sweet man. My heart goes out to Dan's favorite 2 girls, Stevie & Christina. You were his world! May God bless you both during this difficult time.

“ Dan was one of the most enthusiastically genuine people persons I ever met. His outlook was such that if you were not happy around him, you just were not paying attention. I passed by his office at Atlas Marketing one day and asked, How are you doing, Dan? He looked up with a broad smile and said, I'm just riding along with the top down. I think that summarized his approach to life. A ceiling or a roof did not encumber him. His joy was boundless and contagious. His light continues to shine. My sincere condolences to all his family.

“ Dan was like an older brother and mentor to me over the past 20 years. From the time I was a buyer at Harris Teeter in 1998, we became great friends and played a lot of golf together. We went to the U.S. Open at Pinehurst together and took many trips to Myrtle Beach. Dan had more great jokes than anyone I have ever known and was always available to meet for dinner or a beer (Miller High Life) whenever my travels brought me back to Charlotte. I am so glad that I had the opportunity to talk to him a couple of weeks ago and remember all the great times we had. He was and will always be, one of the best friends I have ever had and I will miss him greatly.

“ Dan was a good friend of mine and I will treasure the times with him calling on Harris Teeter and enjoying his company on the golf course. He was always up to date on college and pro sports and we enjoyed lively discussions on our favorite teams. Dan was passionate about whatever he did: family, Acosta, Harris Teeter, golf, USC, etc. He taught me many valuable lessons and I will miss our weekly conversations.
