“ There are so many memories I have with you Mama JP. We have shared cookouts by the pool at Tuckah Farms, zip lining, holidays, Mother's Day, secret talks, smiles and a lot of laughs. I will miss you dearly and I promise to always look after your most cherished possession...Scott. I will love him and have his back to the very end of days. Thank you for always telling me I was the daughter you never had. You ALWAYS made me feel like family, especially when I needed it the most. I have comfort knowing you, Papaw Peanut, Tony, and Brenda are sharing hugs, laughing, and catching up. I will always love you. Rest easy now...until we meet again. ❤️❤️

“ Thank you, Jerry, for the lifetime of memories we have shared together with our families.
From your visits to our house at Carolina Beach, to the fun filled vacations I enjoyed in "Miller's Town", those memories will never disappear.
My hope is for Randy and Scott to find comfort in the memories they will always have of you.
For in the end, memories are all we have ... but they last forever.
Your loving cousin, now, and forever in memories, Keith Abernathy

“ Randy and family,
I'm heartbroken to learn Jerry has passed. It's been several years since we left CPC, but I remember her vividly- "Small but 'fierce'." I know Jesus, Peanut, Rusty, Tony, and Brenda have welcomed her home. She will be missed.
May the Lord embrace and sustain you on this journey.
