“ I am grieving and praying for Patrick and Jessica's family. I have known Jessica for probably about 14 years as we developed a friendship out of the hair stylist/client relationship. I always knew when I was going to see her that we would laugh, share stories, ponder deep life thoughts and end up with laughing again. She will be sorely missed as words can't capture how important and impactful she was.

“ I am so sad to hear Jessica is no longer with us. I have been a client of hers for many years and she was so much more than a hairstylist. She was such a wonderful and beautiful person inside and out. We shared so many stories together. I looked forward to spending time with her and she was always there to listen and give advice. Sending my thoughts and prayers to Patrick and all of Jessica's family and friends. She will be greatly missed.

We are all so sad to hear this news. Always knowing the pride Larry and Karen Deese had in the beautiful soul of Jessica. Her memories will remain with so many. To her parents, and husband; trust that she will be in good hands, and know that life will change, but go on. May her memory be used for 'good'. And always know that she contributed much happiness to many. Prayers continually for your hearts as you adjust to this ... and heal. Many prayers for all of you.

“ I was so saddened to hear of this news. I worked with Jessica at Sanctuary Salon for years. She was always bubbly and laughing. I remember how much she loved Britney Spears and I even helped her get her hair ready for her Vegas trip when she was going to see Britney perform! I'll always remember how much she loved her puppies. I loved seeing photos of them! She will be deeply missed.

“ Hello Jessica’s family....I met Jessica after her career as a cheerleader, we worked together at Savvy Salon & Day Spa. I can’t express the sadness I feel today as I just heard this tragic news. I sit here just picturing her beautiful smile, and can hear her bubbly laugh. She was so proud of her family, always talked about them. I wasn’t around when she got married, so to her husband I say, “may you find some peace, somehow, this will be a long sad journey” I will pray for you continually.

“ Jessica worked with us at Savvy, and I know the world was a better place with her in it. Her effervescent personality was a true gift. My husband liked to tease her about that little blue dress. (It was from a Christmas party and she looked dynamite!) She is way too young to leave her loved ones. To you, my heart goes out. May God bless and keep you during these terrible times.

“ Everyone that knows Jessica has a loss for words. I've known Jessica when she was in high school. She lived across the street from me. She loved dancing and teaching little girls. She was so proud of her niece Elizabeth. We was so proud of her for being the youngest Carolina Panther's Top Cats and went with them to the Super Bowl!! She married the love of her life and had a beautiful wedding. When Jessica starting being a hair stylist at Savy Salon she started doing my hair. I have followed her everywhere and she has done my hair for almost 20 years and my hair isn't easy to do. I will so miss our talks and laughs and catching up on our lives. She was so proud of Patrick and would tell me he was so smart and his families success with River Trail and her baby Kensie. I too have puppies and we showed pictures every six weeks of them growing. She got another puppy and then I did too. Unfortunately Covid hit and closed her salon and she never got to seeour Lil Buddy. I will miss our talks about the Bachelor, and American Idol. She loved Brittany Speers and got to see her in concert and she had a blast. I will always remember your smile. My condolences to Debbie and Spencer, and Patrick and his family and her brother and sister and of course her babies.

This doesn't feel real and I'm still having trouble comprehending it, but I'll hold tight to all of the amazing memories we had and her spirit will live on. Love you forever, Jess!*

“ Jessica was always a bright light in my day. I was so lucky to be her coach and my life was better because of the time I spent with her. I learned to laugh at myself and completely loved that teenager I was so fortunate to know. Lol, she use to warn the girls, “Coach White’s eyes are red so watch out, she had a bad day.”. She puts a smile on my face to this day. All my love to her family and the many, many people who’s lives she touched.
