“ You and Tammy were the first people I met in Mooresville when I arrived from California. You always blushed when I told you that I was the President of the Jimmy Moore fan club. Well it was true. You were one of the best man that I met in NC. Your smile filled a room. I don't care where I was going, if I spotted your green Camaro in the parking lot at Lews I had to stop for a beer and a laugh. You were so special to both Troy and myself. Thank you for your help, kindness and general on spirit. Rest in peace my dear friend. I couldn't pissing forget you.

“ Jimmy, You were one of my all time greatest friends that the Lord blessed me with on this earth. I will never ever forget you or the lasting memories that we shared. We had a blast. As life went on and I married Teresa, our paths separated until my 40th birthday party which would never had of been complete without you're presence. I will never forget it. My wife summoned it up perfectly when she told me that "I just love that Jimmy,' he tries to be a little rough on the edge, but he is a big ole teddy bear. That was you my friend. I will always carry with me, while I'm left on this earth, the friendship we had and memories we made. You were a good friend that I'll always miss.
