“ Joan and I were best friends for many years, starting in junior high. We shared a love of music and singing. Joan served as the Matron of Honor at my wedding and I as bridesmaid at her's. We stayed in contact for over 50 years until the last couple of years. I will miss her and pray she is at peace. God's Blessings to her beloved family.

“ You don't know me but I feel like I know all of her children. We worked together at Brian Center. She talked about you so often. I loved her yankee punctuation especially when talked about draws instead of drawers or Dr. Camp Bell. It was really one word . She was a wonderful nurse. , As the Direction of Nurses, that I knew that I could depend on her. I pray for peace in this time and the days to come with precious memories to remember and share with each other Johnnie Johnston
