

Joe Forrest London, Jr.

February 1, 1943 - February 3, 2025

Joe Forrest London Jr., 82, passed away peacefully at home on February 3, 2025, in Mount Ulla, North Carolina.

Born on February 1, 1943, in Mount Ulla, North Carolina, Joe was always deeply connected to the communities in which he called home. Upon graduation from West Rowan High School in 1961, he pursued a higher education at North Carolina State College (now North Carolina State University), earning both a bachelor's (1964) and master's degree (1966) in textile technology. He was inducted into the Honor Society of Phi Kappa Phi upon graduation and entered into a professional career that spanned decades in the textile industry, beginning with Burlington Industries in 1966 and continuing with DuPont de Nemours from 1988 until his retirement.

Beyond his professional accomplishments, Joe had a love for bluegrass music, gardening, family history, and model railroading. These interests brought him much joy and provided cherished moments with both family and friends.

Joe is survived by his loving spouse, Linda Lowery London; his son, Forrest Kimball London (wife Cindy Williams London); his daughter, Teresa Lee London; and two granddaughters, Lily Helene London Hamilton and Charlotte Edith London Hamilton. He was predeceased by his parents, Joseph Forest

London and Edith Overcash London.

A visitation will be held on February 22, 2025, from 11:30 AM to 1:30 PM at Cavin-Cook Funeral Home, located at 494 East Plaza Drive in Mooresville, North Carolina. A graveside service will follow at Triplett Church Cemetery at 838 Mazeppa Road in Mooresville at 2:00 PM.

Joe's memory will live on through those who knew him and the legacy he leaves behind.
