“ Joel and I were good friends in Jr. High and some of my best memories shared with him were going to Brown's Skating Rink on Thursday nights. Sometimes we rode with my Dad, but other times one of his brothers would take us. We liked going with his brother because he had a '64 Chevy Impala. Joel and I really liked cars. We lost touch after school, but I remember he was always smiling and happy.

To his family, I offer my sympathy and prayers.
