“ We will never find another neighbor like Jay! We will always remember the weekend evenings he would come over with a smile, a story and Lucy, to listen to music. He was a generous man and always made sure he included my son in on boating adventures on the lake! Jay was always there to watch our animals and our house when we were out of town, we borrowed so many tools and ladders and even "old yeller" from time to time. Jay touched our lives and hearts and will remain there! We will miss his smile, his wave, his hat and his kind heart. Rest in peace Jay.

To Jill and all his family, our deepest sympathies.

“ Jay was one of the good guys. He was sweet, giving, funny, and grilled the best burger I've ever eaten. I will remember forever the wonderful sharing while at our East Meck get togethers at the lake. The memories are sweet.

To Jerry, Judy, and all Jay's family, you were blessed with the best! Love to you all.

“ The best dad ever! Always there if I called and needed anything! He had so many gifts to even name them all. Stubborn as a mule and strong as an ox for sure. Taught me so much. You have always supported me in every thing I ever wanted to try and cheered me on all the way. It was with your assistance that I got into the insurance business and have remained there for more than 25 years. I love you dearly Dad! I will miss you more than you will ever know. Murphy will be well taken care of! Skeeter will surely warm up to him soon. Until I see you again, I love you and please give Jody a HUGE hug from his lil sister. Forever your daughter, Jill Pickles

“ My brother, a low-key kind of guy! The best brother a sister could have. When I needed him, he was there. An overachiever in every way - cooking, refinishing furniture, fixing anything most people couldn't do with two arms and it had to be right!

I will miss you, but will see you again. Peace is with you now and I'm happy for you.

*Love you,
Your Baby Sister*

My brother JAY ,told me stories that happened when we were little.I would say I don't remember that He had a memory if an Elephant. I will miss his calls where we would talk and talk. It is sad that he is gone, but he is not suffering anymore and one day , not sure when that will be, I will join him in our eternal home. When talking to him on phone , as we were hanging up, he would say , Love you and I mean it. Love you brother and I mean it. Until then, Dot.
