“ I send my deepest condolences to the family and friends of Mr. Hoffman. Although I did not know him personally, I've experienced the loss of a loved one some years ago and know it is a difficult situation to face. I pray that his family and friends can find comfort in God's Word, the Bible, and continue to rely on Him in prayer. John 5:28, 29 talks about a hope we have of seeing our loved ones again when they are resurrected back to life. We can be confident in that beautiful and exciting promise, and may it bring you hope and peace!

“ When I head that Lewis had passed away, I was shocked by the news and tearful. Lewis was my manager at Bradford Drive and I worked as his clerk for the great company that we called Southern Bell. Lewis always held a special place in my heart as being a special person that was very caring for his employees and always someone that you were proud to say that you worked for. I'm proud to say that Lewis Hoffman was one of the finest men that I have know with integrity and honesty. It was an honor to know you and work for you. You were loved by many and will be missed.

“ May God bless the Hoffman family during this difficult time. I am so glad that Doris and I called to wish Lewis Happy Birthday. We did not know at the time that our call was a final good bye. I will greatly miss Lewis with his country charm and regular guy approach to problems and life. You could always count on Lewis to take the time to listen and help you out whether it was personal or business. He was a very special friend and man. I thank God that our paths crossed in this life and pray to see him again in heaven.

“ It's hard to believe I've known Lewis over 40 years. He was a kind, gentle, caring man with a lot of determination. He was more than just a co-worker and boss but a special friend. I will always cherish the bond we shared and am thankful we were able to continue our friendship all these many years. Lewis was one of the special people in my BellSouth family and I dearly loved this man!

“ Janice, Cristin and family, It was with a heavy heart that I read of Lewis' passing. Although it has been years since we last saw each other, I remember Lewis as one of the kindest and sweetest people I have ever known. The world has lost a great man and heaven has gained a sweet angel, whom I know will be looking down on all of his family and watching over them. At times like this, it is not always easy to find the right words but please know that my thoughts and prayers are with you. Wishing you peace to bring comfort, courage to face the days ahead and loving memories to forever hold in your hearts. God bless.

“ How truly sad I am to learn of Lewis' passing. He was one of the finest, most sincere, dependable, capable, and truly supportive associates with whom I've ever worked. No matter how severe, frustrating, or impossible a problem would arise, how thankful I always was to know Lewis was on my team and would ultimately figure out a way to successfully deal with it. Lewis surely has secured a very special place in heaven that he so richly deserves.

“ The Good Lord only made one Lewis Hoffman, then he threw that mold away. He then decided to share him with those of us who knew him. Now the Lord has decided he needs him back for a more important project. I can only say, I am one of many who have been privileged to have known Lewis for a fleeting moment as he passed through.

“ I knew Lewis's older brother, Bill, first and they were just lifelong friends of mine until their passing. I could always count on Lewis to do without complaining what ever I asked him to do. I relived a lot of homesickness by talking ever 3 or 4 days when Lewis was in Australia. I was proud of Lewis for looking out for Janice. I shall miss him on this earth, but know he will be fixing things up there.
