“ I never met John face to face only on the “live “ jewelry shows he did but I loved him the first time I watched his show. He was the type of person you felt you had known all your life and was like a best friend. He always made me laugh on this side of the phone and he loved me teasing him with pictures of the food I would cook. He was truly one of the sweetest and most loving person I had ever had the pleasure to have in my life and call my friend. Rest now my sweet friend with no more pain and say hi to Randy for me. You will really like him. He’s my heart just as you are. Love you my dear friend.

“ My deepest and sincerest condolences to the family & friends of John (or "Inks", as we referred to him).

Inks and I worked together on the same squad for the Cabarrus County Sheriff's Office / Jail Division and he was always a pleasure to work with.

A down-to-earth, tell-it-like-it-is kind of guy, a devoted family man and someone that could always make us laugh or had something funny to say.

With all the jokes he would make, I asked him if he liked Comedic Movies? With a deadpan expression, he'd reply: "Nah. I like Horror Movies."

THAT, was Inks!!!

I always enjoyed talking to him and hearing his stories of taking care of his granddaughters, whom he loved and cared for deeply.

He was also amazing with his hands with wood working! He could re-purpose and refinish just about anything he could get his hands on! I think he would've had a great side-hustle in doing that!

*Rest-in-Peace, My Brother.
You will be truly missed.*

“ *I met John through Papparizzi that he dearly loved. John was such a caring, funny, loving man with such a big heart. I cannot say enough good things about John without writing a book. First and foremost John loved his family more than anything. He cherished every minute he got to spend with his two granddaughters he was raising. God knew it was time for John to come home and relieve him of all his pain. I will cherish my memories of John and know I have gained precious Angel to watch over me. May God Bless the entire family.
