“ Back in John's teen years, I was manager at Derrick Truckstop. John lived nearby and would come to the Truckstop, picked up a few dollars doing odd jobs. He was a well-mannered young fella. My daughter who was around 5 -6 yrs old fell in love with Johnny. He grew into a fine young man. We would see him at the Kannapolis cruise-ins and catch-up on each other. Proud to have know Johnny. “ John Kirkman Family, I am so very sorry to learn of John's passing. Ran into him couple of weeks ago at the grocery store. He was very amazed I remembered him and called his name(even with masks). I used to work downtown and he ran the postal route in those days. We talked for a few minutes, talked about his grandchildren and family, and my grandchildren, etc. Prayers and thoughts for your family.
