“ Throughout the years having known Mike he was such a good man. His personality was that winning smile, his respect and kindness, always came through to all that knew him. As time went by, there were times when we saw less of Mike, yet, when Mike came again there he was with that smile again, and the same good person as always. Although Mike will be greatly missed by the many who knew him, may we all find comfort of knowing he is in God's loving care now. Goodbye, Mike, for a little while, our friend, until we see you again. Our most heartfelt prayers and thoughts go out to your dear loved ones and all, that God may bless everyone with peace and comfort knowing you are in better place. With love and prayers

“ Mike was the sweetest most loving guy I've ever met. We had a love for each other that not many people would understand. My heart is broken into a million pieces, but I know he is in a much better place and for that reason I am happy for him. He's my angel watching over me now. I love you John Michael Smith. I can't wait until I get to be with you again! I'm praying for peace for his sweet family! Love always, Crystal
