

John Covington Miles, Jr.

October 2, 1940 - March 10, 2026

Rev. John Covington Miles, beloved minister, devoted husband, cherished father, and grandfather, went to be with the Lord on March 10, 2026, at the age of 85. Born on October 2, 1940, in Lake City, SC, he was the son of the late John C. Miles, Sr. and Hannah Lynch Miles. John's life was a testament to resilience and faith, shaped by his early years as one of seven siblings following the loss of his father at a young age. From paper routes to farming tobacco, he learned the value of hard work and responsibility, becoming the man of the household in his formative years.

In 1958, John proudly served in the U.S. Army, stationed in Korea, where he not only experienced the rigors of military life but also formed lasting friendships, playing catcher on the softball team. His journey of faith began upon his return home, when he found salvation at a Friday night revival in January 1963 and delivered his first sermon that fall. Two weeks after meeting Judy Whitaker at church, he knew she was his forever love, and they married on December 18, 1964. Together, they passionately served congregations across North Carolina for over 40 years, touching countless lives with their loving ministry.

John's calling extended beyond the pulpit; he spent 16 years at Cavin-Cook

Funeral Home in Mooresville, offering compassion and support as both a funeral assistant and in-house clergy. Throughout his 62 years of preaching, he remained a beacon of hope and strength to all who knew him.

John is preceded in death by his beloved wife of 54 years, Judy, as well as his brother Billy and sister Betty Faye. He is survived by his daughter, Benita L. Garris (Tim), of Shelby; granddaughter, Hannah E. Bodman (Chris) of Locust, NC; siblings Mary James of Lake City, Shirley Browder of Myrtle Beach, Russell Miles (Sylvia) of Lake City, and Wanda Deans (Ken) of Florence; special sisters-in-law, Nedra Newton, Myra Riffle and Pat Fox and a number of extended family members.

The family will welcome friends for a time of fellowship and remembrance from 11 - 1 PM prior to the service at Cavin-Cook Funeral Home.

In remembrance of a life devoted to service and love, funeral services for Rev. Miles will be held at 1 PM Friday, March 13, 2026, at the Heritage House at Cavin-Cook Funeral Home in Mooresville. Following the service, John will be laid to rest at Iredell Memorial Park in Statesville.

“ I'm so grateful to have met John, a God fearing man that had so much compassion for others in their time of need. His love of God and his love of doing Gods work was a priority in his life. He served others through patience and kindness to each family. I was blessed to work with him for many years at Cavin Cook Funeral Home and he was always faithful in his love for others who needed the words of comfort and a genuine gentleman that knew how to comfort others. John, may you rest well, you were truly a humble and faithful servant... You will be missed.

“ Rev John Miles was the epitome of a Pastor that loved his parishioners. He was always there when you needed advice or support. He was my 1st Pastor in a full gospel church, mentor in learning the Word of God, my friend, a wise man and a good man. He always made you feel comfortable when talking about your problems or anything going on and would always say " I'll pray about it or I've been praying for you." He was one of the best men I've ever met in life and will be missed dearly. 🥹🙏🏿✝️❤️
