Johnny was definitely one of a kind! We all used to hang around together at Archer's Texaco and our cars were our life! Used to love renting the drag strip and running our cars. Johnny used to say, "let's go to so and so. We'll take my car if you drive!" He was definitely a character that none of us will ever forget. RIP Johnny

Art and I are so sorry to hear of Johnny's passing. He loved coming to the car show at Bruster's and he loved his cars. He Always had a smile on his face and a nice word for everyone he talked to. You will be missed Johnny. Soar on high with the angels now and keep watch over all of us. Prayers to your sister and her family. Linda and Art Rahtes
