“ *My deepest condolences to Mr. Shoup's family and friends; while no words may ease your pain, rest assured that the pain we feel won't go on forever. John 5:28, 29 talks about a hope we have of seeing our loved ones again when they're resurrected back to life. Once resurrected, they can enjoy the promise found at Revelation 21:4 which speaks of a world in which death, tears, mourning, and pain don't exist, for "the former things have passed away". “ We met John at the Senior Center in Mooresville in an exercise class. We enjoyed his company and his humor. He enjoyed going to Tennis as a spectator with Dick a few times. We have missed his presence in the class. We are grateful for the loving care of his family and his "daughter" who drove him to the senior center. We send our sympathy to you and are grateful to have known him for a short time.
