“ I don't know where to begin.....For 13 years of my life you were my 1st love and best friend. We were together all the time we went through a lot together and made 3 beautiful children. We always were inseparable. You were a big part of my world and even though circumstances and out of respect for your family and our children I was not able to pay my respects. So I am doing it here. You have always been my 1st love and there has and always will be a place in my heart for you. Maybe one day you will look down from heaven and see me and the kids together again. I wish I could be with them and help them go through this. I know how it was when I lost my Daddy. They still have their Mother and that day will come. R.I.P Joey and I hope your dancing in the sky with your Mom and Dad. Loved you then and love you still. Can't believe your gone so soon to young. God has other plans for you. Spread your wings and fly.
