“ Joe was a very special friend. I have known him my entire life. Joe was a vast book of knowledge. You could ask him a question about anything and he would probably know the answer. He loved History, I loved talking to him about History and current events. He was a kind soul, loved adventure, riding his motorcycles and driving his Porsche and the open road. I will miss seeing him and our talks. It was an honor knowing Joe and being his friend. He is gone way to soon. rest in peace my dear friend, you will be dearly missed. A true friend indeed. God be with Heather and Theo, hold tight to the memories, and remember he loved you both dearly.
