“ Joyce was my pastors wifein the 80s. She took us berry hunting to make berry topping for our ice cream. We went to so many amusement parks, ice cream runs after church, and was always planning something fun. She was like a second grandma. She for sure is missed. So many memories my own kids feel like they knew her. ❤️ love Joyce and miss you and bob

“ Aunt Joyce will live on in our hearts. How I will miss talking to her on the phone. Didn't do it often enough. It was always an uplifting experience. We know she adored her family and had many friends. Our heartfelt sympathies to all who knew and loved her. Family of Harley Jr and Sheryl Hough
