“ My Aunt Joyce...could light up a room with her presence, had a great sense of humor and a twinkle in her eye - I never saw her without a smile and a laugh...how I loved visiting in Rivervale... I have a mental image of Joyce, all 5'0" of her, "talking turkey" with a gate agent at the Philadelphia airport, telling them they WOULD find them a flight after their flight was cancelled amid wicked snowstorms to get to Goshen for my wedding in February of 1976... they made it!! And that made my day! She was a force of nature! I hate to say goodbye to you Joyce - love you....

“ Oh Joyce. You were always a hoot and a good laugh. Being able to care for you was a pure joy. You always amazed by how strong and independent you were. Always full of questions and advice. Couldn't stand for there to be anything in the floor. But the one thing I will always take with me is, "I've had 8 kids, I don't take any shit from anyone". And you didn't. Even the floor lost it's battle against you, ma'am. Love you always Joycey. I sure am gonna miss that smile.

“ Take a good look at this pic. You might think it is a bunch of people having a great time, right? Well what you don't see is my mom .she is critically ill in the next room and we were told to gather to say our goodbyes. but let's zoom in closer to the 2 oldest people. These two are my uncle Jimin the very back and my truly loved Aunt Joyce of course in purple.. they were the pillars of strength. They made sure we were fed had a place to stay and want for nothing at this stressful time. we could not have gotten through it without them and their over and above hospitality. Their smiles , their hugs , their strength. My purple wearing, toe tap dancer, Travelog keeper, gray pony better, 2327 box it player , colorful language speaker, mm mm mm mm mm mm cooker, orchid grower extraordinaire, avid book reader, penny mahjong winner, colorful phase speaker, twin to my mom, her sister, Buick driver loyalist, a one time resident of Rivervale with the best wooded yard by far, loving mom to my awesome cousins .this just scratches the surface She was so much more. She was my Aunt Joyce and as the poem goes that I learned oh so many summers ago as she would get the daily news and read as we kids would gather in her den to watch the soaps or whatever and i can still recite it today for her:

What I would give to see you smile

To sit with you and talk awhile

The blow was sudden ,the shock severe

To part with you whom we LOVED SO DEAR.

Aunt Joyce your love and strength will be greatly missed but You and yours will never be forgotten !

Love always Lisa
