“ To Bobby & family,I am Dennis Wood's wife and I want to send you my heartfelt sympathy for the passing of Judy. I am so blessed to have known you both and I consider you my friends. We have many good memories when you all came out to Phoenix to race. Judy was a beautiful person inside and out and loved her family and friends dearly. May God give you the strength to get through this and I know one day we will all see each other again in heaven. Prayers for you and all your family!! We can have peace and comfort just knowing she has made it to the other side and will have no more hurt or sorrow. Praise God for loving all of us!!!

“ Me and my family have always been Allison fans and felt like we were part of the Alabama gang family. I had the privilege to meet Bobby and Judy in Aiken South Carolina at the mall on the way to the southern 500 we had a good conversation with bother them, Judy went out to the car with me to get me a T-shirt while Bobby signed all my race cars & shirts. That may my day just sitting there talking both of them ! Racing is not the same without the Allisons there .Our hearts are saddened with you all this difficult time may God bless you all.

“ My association with the Allison family didn't come through "racing" but through Saint Aloysius where Bonnie and I met and where our children went to school. I am truly blessed to have Bonnie as a dear and loving friend and was honored to spend some special times with Judy and Bobby Allison. My heart is heavy for all the Allison family but I know that their belief in our God will help with the healing. Love, Jean Griffith, Birmingham AL

“ BA and family the entire racing world was shocked to learn of Judy's passing. There are so many wonderful memories of the last 35 years that have been shared from our ALL PRO days together with the entire family. Just know BA, Judy has Davey & Clifford in her warm loving arms again keeping them safe and warm until the whole family will be together again. Our love and prayers are with you at this time of grief as they have always been Bobby. Forever your ALL PRO Super Series family.

“ We recently spent time with Judy, Bobby, Donnie and his wife in Camden. It was such a treat. Judy was such a beautiful lady, both inside and out. She loved her family and friends. Our hearts are broken and we have Bobby and the entire family in our prayers. May the joy and love Judy emitted linger with all of you for time to come. May God comfort you and may the passing of time allow you to deal with your loss. Your Camden friends.
