

Judith Rosalie Butcher

September 9, 1942 - February 16, 2022

Judith "Judy" Corns Butcher, 79, of Salisbury, passed away on Wednesday, February 16, 2022.

She was born on September 9, 1942 in Davin, West Virginia, to the late Donald and Eloise Blankenship Corns. Mrs. Butcher was a 1960 graduate of Man High School. After graduation, she got a job in Washington DC with the DAR. She came back to West Virginia and had jobs at Man Hospital and Pittston Coal Company, before moving to Mooresville, NC, where all her family had relocated. Her last employment was with Lake Norman Medical Center. She loved flower gardening and had a great green thumb. She enjoyed working puzzles, crafts, traveling, and taking a ride to get a milkshake. Mrs. Butcher loved her family and spending time with them.

She is survived by her daughter, Lisa Butcher; sister, Margaret Meade and husband, John; brother, Donald Corns and wife, Alicia; grandchildren, Travis, Joseph, Michael, and Gabriel; and numerous nieces and nephews.

No services will be held at this time.

In lieu of flowers, memorials may be made to Brightmoor Nursing Home, 610 West Fisher Street, Salisbury, NC 28114.

Cavin-Cook Funeral Home & Crematory, Mooresville, is serving the Butcher family. Condolences may be made to the family at www.cavin-cook.com.

“ Judy was my best friend all through high school. I spent more time at her house sometimes more than my own. She was so funny, great personality. We had so much fun together, so many memories I will never forget her. So sorry for the families loss.

“ Lisa I'm so very sorry for the loss of your beautiful Momma. I'm honored that I got to know that beautiful, spunky and sweet little lady! She loved you all so very much. You will carry her love and memories in your hearts always. A good chuckle or laugh is not far off when you bring back those memories. Love, Hugs and Prayers for you all, now and in the days to come.
