So many family memories of your family and ours growing up. Your parents were wonderful, your dad's humor and laugh I'll forever cherish. Your mom, she was something, I was one of the kids as well with her and I loved that, she also had an infectious laugh, very loving and the best cook!! I still love her enchiladas, and will never have any as good as your mom's. The card games our parents played nearly every Friday night, us kids upstairs being crazy. I cherish all my memories or our families. I'm sure your mom's spirit is flying high being with your dad. ❤️ love, Cindy

So very sad we lost our closest friends, Judy and Jerry. Friends like family for 60 years, spending hours and days together, visiting, playing cards, and even Dance lessons. So many fun and loving memories, so many years. How sad to loose them, but how Lucky..we were to know them.... Love 💖 Irene & Al Keith
