“ I send my deepest condolences to the family and friends of Mrs. Brown. Although I did not know her personally, I, too, have experienced the loss of a loved one some years ago and know it is a difficult situation to face. I pray that her family and friends can find comfort in God's Word, the Bible, and continue to rely on Him in prayer. John 5:28, 29 talks about a hope we have of seeing our loved ones again when they are resurrected back to life. What a beautiful and exciting hope that is!

“ I love you more than anyone will ever know. You were (and still are) my sunshine and most importantly, my best friend. You'll ALWAYS be my favorite girl in the whole entire world and I know in my heart that I will be yours. I love you Grammy June, "Babbatail"

“ I want to offer my condolences and to assure you of a wonderful hope that the bible offers. The bible makes the promise of a resurrection at Acts 24:15. It also tells us that death will be no more. (Revelation 21:4) You can believe this because God is the creator of life and he is certainly capable of restoring it. He has resurrected people in the past and is eager to do it again. (Job 14:14,15) He will resurrect them here to the earth and you can see them again without having to die. My hope is that you take comfort in these promises and that it can in some way ease your pain at this time

“ June was a dear friend. We met when Frank Mach and I moved to Warner Robbins, Georgia -- she was excited because someone from Mississippi would be working in the same school system as she. We talked, shopped, consulted each other on school matters and of course, had discussions about Mississippi, our families and even went to USM one summer when Kathi was very young for both of us to take course work! Time goes on and sometimes relationships fade a little but the friendship is ALWAYS there. Love to each of you!
