“ My name is Kathy McGowan and i work in the NYAB Finance department in Watertown, NY and collaborated with Karl on many projects during the years. Karl was truly an upstanding individual to work with and we also did share on an individual level and i am deeply saddened to hear about Karl's passing. My daughter is a Doctor of Pharmacy and specializes in organ transplant so we did share on his personal health journey and he would have me pose questions or concerns to my daughter for her opinion during his course of treatments.

I know we will see Karl again when we all eventually travel home but my prayers go out to all of Karl's family during these tragic and difficult days now without Karl's laughter and presence in them.

God Bless the entire Kissman Family during this time of loss! Karl will be truly missed at NYAB!

“ KK - I can hear you telling me "suck it up buttercup" as I'm writing this. I am so heart broken right now for your family and your friends. There are no words to describe the loss we all feel.

To your beautiful family- Karl loved you all so fiercely and proudly - he spoke of each of you every day and you could feel how proud he was. I am so incredibly sorry for your loss. We are all here for you.

Work will never be the same without you Kissman. I'll always hear you when I open a PPT and you saying "who cares about the font". I'll miss your stories, you're wisdom, and most of all your friendship. We all miss you already.

“ Miss you so much already. My heart breaks for Tina, Elizabeth, Phillip, Emma and Cullen. I will miss picking on you and you picking right back. I will miss your honesty when I needed it the most, your guidance when i didn't want to listen to reason and most of all your friendship. I so glad our paths crossed in this life. I will never forget you KK.
